

Paulo Jorge de Moura Pereira CV summarised

Advisory in areas of leadership and productivity for organisations such as LIDL, Merck Sharp & Dohme, or Bemis associations.

Qualification for Euro 2022 (Hungary and Slovakia).

Qualification for the OG of Tokyo, first time in the history of a collective sport in Portugal (March 2021, Montpellier)

Best classification ever in a world of male seniors (10° classified — Egypt 2021)

Qualification for the world of 2021 (Egypt) after 17 years of absence

Qualification for the Paris Olympic qualification tournament (April 2020 postponed to March 2021)

Best classification ever in a European (2020) senior male (6th classified) (Norway, Sweden, Austria)

Coach of the year 2019 (allocated by the Portuguese Sports Confederation)

Qualification for the euro 2020 male seniors after 14 years of absence

Merit and Excellency Recognition, FADEUP-University of Porto (2019)

National Selector of Portugal, male Seniors (2016-2022)

Esperance Sportive de Tunis, male seniors (2015-2016)

National Selector of Tunisia, female seniors (2013-2015). African Championship winner 2014 after 32 years (Algeria). President cup winner– 16th place (World Serbia 2013)

Coach of Senior Team of 1° de Agosto, Angola (2010-2013). Winner does the first Provincial Championship (2010) And 1st Club History Championship (2011).

National Selector of Angola, female seniors (2009-2010). The African Championship winner 2010 (Egypt) 11th World Place (China 2009).

Coach Male Senior Team Club Balonmano Cangas, Spain (2006-2008). Galicia cup winner (2006)

Winner, two cup league (2003/2004 and 2004/2005) Cup of Portugal (2005/2006) and National Championship (2003/2004)

Coach FCPorto Juniors (1999-2003) and male seniors - 2003-2006

Physical education teacher in schools (basic and secondary education 1994-2006)

Professor of Handball Principles and Practices at the Maia Superior Institute (1999-2003)

Master at High Sports Performance (FADEUP, 1999)

Sport Science and Physical Education Graduate (FCDEF, 1995)